

Edmund Rice was born in _____.

He belonged to a _____ family.

Ireland was ruled by _____ and the _____ were imposed on them.

Edmund rice received his education at a _____ school.

Edmund Rice became an apprentice under his uncle Michael Rice and became a successful _____.

He married _____ Elliot in 1785 when he was 23 years old.

She died in 1789 during _____.

Their daughter _____ was born with a disability.

Edmund felt withdrawn from life and thought of going and joining a monastic religious order in the continent.

He was persuaded by a friend to go and do something for the poor boys in _____.

He set up a _____ in Waterford, where the boys were unruly.

He also had to set up a _____ and _____ alongside the school to freely feed and clothe the boys coming in as they were from poor families.

Two men joined him in this venture.

They got inspired by the work of a Cork woman _____ who was the foundress of the Presentation Sisters and they began to call themselves the Gentlemen of the _____.

The presentation referred to the presentation of _____ in the temple which was a Jewish tradition.

The Presentation Brothers went on to open many schools in _____ and around the world.

Among those schools that the Presentation Brothers opened our school Coláiste an Spioraid Naoimh is one of them.

Today all around the world the Presentation Brothers celebrate their feast day and as we are all part of the Presentation family, we also celebrate Presentation Day.